Governor Kate Brown to Hold Press Availability at 11:00 a.m. today, January 22

(Salem, OR) — Governor Kate Brown will hold a press availability today to discuss her legislative agenda as outlined in her State of the State address, as well as Oregon's ongoing response to COVID-19. She will be joined by representatives from the Oregon Health Authority, the Oregon Department of Education, and Kaiser Permanente Northwest.

The press availability will be today, January 22, at 11:00 a.m.

Members of the media must RSVP for call-in information by emailing our office at Governors.Press@oregon.gov.

We will be utilizing a Zoom-based platform for tomorrow's press conference, and we ask members of the media to log in a few minutes early. Thank you for your patience as we adjust to this new system.

A livestream will be available for the public on the Governor's YouTube page. Spanish and American Sign Language (ASL) simulcasts will also be available.

Log-in information will be provided to all reporters who RSVP to participate remotely. Thank you for working with us to ensure the health and safety of all participants. Please RSVP by 9 a.m. so we can ensure you receive the call-in information before the press conference begins.
