4. Library Room Policy

Nathalie Johnston addresses the Board regarding policy for the use of the library public room, political issues and a book club. Marc Henderson explains laws around public campaigning. The Board was in agreement that anything that can be considered political discussion should not be sponsored by the library.

5. Mosman Order-Aid & Assist

Commissioner DeGroot explains, The Mosman decision is from a judge who gave an order about aid and assist. Marc Henderson said, aid and assist is about folks that can't aid and assist themselves. Commissioner DeGroot said, there are now time limits that folks can be in a facility and who can aid them. There are groups of counties that are getting together to push back and have discussion. One letter we received from Marion County. There was an ask if we wanted to join the fight, there is a potential cost with it. The Board was in agreement to have Mr. Henderson stay engaged with Marion County and if there's anything with an expense, bring it back to the Board.
